

Chapter 2. Burglar Alarms
REPEALED
ENTIRE CHAPTER TITLED “BURGLAR ALARMS”

History:

1996 Amendment. Clerical changes to designations of last two subsections were made by section 40 of Woodstock Village Ordinance Revision #5, adopted by the Board on January 22, 1996, effective March 22, 1996.

History:

1996 Amendment. Subsection (3) was amended by deleting the word “Fines” and inserting the word “Fees” pursuant to section 3 of the Woodstock Village Ordinance Revision #5, adopted by the Board on January 22, 1996, effective March 22, 1996.

History:

1996 Amendment. Section was generally amended by section 4 of Woodstock Village Ordinance Revision #5, adopted by the Board on January 22, 1996, effective March 22, 1996. Revision note: catchline was amended to delete reference to penalty, which is now covered by Chapter 3 of Title 1, W.V.O., and to add reference to prohibitions.

History:

2016 Amendment. The entire Chapter 2 regulating burglar alarms was repealed; the Town of Woodstock maintains an alarm registration program for Town and Village properties; consequently a Village ordinance regulating this subject unnecessary.
