

How can I safely visit a friend or family member in Vermont?

VT Department of Health has created guidance on small steps you can now take to safely visit with a friend or family member. It is important to continue physical distancing when you leave home, to prevent new cases from quickly increasing.